PRESS RELEASE UPDATE #2

Due to the current flooding in the South County area and out of an abundance of caution the Niles Courthouse will be closed on Thursday, February 22nd and Friday, February 23rd. Any matters involving traffic citations, arraignments or reporting to probation offices should now report to the Berrien County Courthouse in St. Joseph while the Niles Courthouse is closed. All other matters should wait until the Niles Courthouse is back open.

The Berrien County Animal Control has assisted with collecting household pets from the River Springs Estates Mobile Home Park in Berrien Springs which has been evacuated due to the flooding in that area. For any individuals that are looking to make contact with their pet they should contact the Berrien County Animal Control Office at (269) 927-5648 during their normal business hours of 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM.

If anyone is in need of shelter due to being displaced from their homes during this time of flooding they should contact the American Red Cross at (269) 556-9619 for assistance.
